

Geo-World:

Conflict & Protest September 2019

BBVA RESEARCH HONG KONG PROTESTS INTENSITY AND SENTIMENT INDEX 2015 – SEPTEMBER 2019

The BBVA Research World Conflict Intensity Index decreased during September, while The World Protest Intensity Index mildly increased.

Source: BBVA Research & www.gdelt.org.
*Coverage= n° protests / n° events. Sentiment goes from -10 (extremely negative) to 10 (extremely positive). (7 days moving average)

Protests in Hong Kong continue. U.S. and U.K. political agendas intensified.

Hong Kong Protests are expected to continue on the 70th anniversary of China

- More than 100 people were injured. The U.S Congress aims to monitor the development closely.

United Kingdom Brexit related political fight intensifies in London

- Prime Minister and the opposition are fighting to have an upper hand in the Brexit agenda.

United States Democrats flex muscles for impeachment inquiry

- House Speaker Pelosi said they would launch a formal impeachment inquiry against President Trump.

Middle East Drone attacks on Saudi oil facilities increased risks

- Drone attacks cost 5.7 million barrels of crude oil per day. Protests in Egypt have also triggered more stress in the region.